

Chapter 6 Supplemental Activity

Handtyping Practice

Complete Lesson 57 before you complete this activity.

The more you practice handtyping, the better you will become at it. In this activity, you will select a favorite short speech or poem and handtype it.

1. Search the Internet or books for a short speech or poem that you like. Some examples might include:
  - The Gettysburg Address by Abraham Lincoln
  - The Road Not Taken by Robert Frost
  - The Red Wheelbarrow by William Carlos Williams
2. Start Word and reopen the Input Panel and the Writing Pad tool if necessary.
3. Handtype the text you have chosen. Format it appropriately.
4. Save and print the document.
